

job description

Role: Lighting Camera Operative

Department: Film

Location: Hartlebury

Salary: Negotiable

Your reason for being here...

Everyone at DRPG has a purpose, and yours is to help deliver jaw-dropping films that tell the perfect story each and every time.

The way you roll...

You're a jet-setting creative genius who loves getting stuck into making and developing cinematic masterpieces. You've got an impeccable eye for detail and it's inspiring how keen you are to learn and master your craft!

A highly motivated self-starter, you're a superstar when it comes to working independently while also slotting right into our team with ease.

That positive attitude of yours works wonders when a challenge arises and, when paired with your impressive communication skills, reliability and (stylish) practical hat, you really show off your commitment to making 'anything possible' with a can-do attitude.

How you make it all possible...

- Working as a key part of our Film crew made up of highly talented Camera Operators, Sound recordists, Directors, Producers and Assistants
- Working closely with a Producer/ Director to utilise creative film and lighting techniques and visualise the look and feel of a film
- Working with a variety of film cameras to produce different shooting styles while combining great storytelling and creative flair to a high standard
- Ensuring equipment is checked and prepared accordingly and in a timely and accurate way
- Data wrangling

What's in your toolbox...

- At least three years' experience filming a wide variety of narrative, message-based films
- Experience with a wide range of film cameras (including Sony FX range, Arri and RED)
- An impressive portfolio filled with all the exciting things you've worked on, while also demonstrating a variety of shooting styles and a good basis of knowledge in lighting techniques and equipment
- Brilliant computer literacy skills (particularly in Office 365 and resource management software)
- Full Driving Licence (keep away from our hedges!)

Get to know us...

We're one of the most unexpectedly all-round capable communications agencies that's been on the go for years – ever since our head honcho set up shop in a shed back in 1980, in fact.

Since then, we've made it our mission to make anything possible for our many and varied clients, putting our creative flair into delivering strategic communication campaigns, digital solutions, film and videos, events, exhibitions, and a whole lot more in between. We've grown a lot, but we've kept everything that made us great, back from the very day we first started out. Our global HQ and largest studios are smack bang in the middle of the UK and well worth a visit to see for yourself!

Hang on, there's more...

Flexibility is key with this role as there will be times when you'll need to work from our other offices and undertake other related commercial duties both in the UK and overseas.

We're a friendly team. We really, really welcome anyone who wants to become part of a brilliant company. If you're passionate with a cracking drive to deliver on our 'anything's possible' mindset, we'd love to hear from you!
